

Say Yes to STEM!

Discovery Week
23-29 April 2018

Call for STEM Activities

3rd Edition

23-29 April 2018

What is STEM Discovery Week?

The STEM Discovery Week aims to facilitate more than 500 STEM activities, reaching out to more than 10,000 schools in 30 countries! Everyone is encouraged to share what they are doing to support studies and careers in STEM and have them displayed on the STEM Discovery Week map of activities.

Who can join STEM Discovery Week 2018?

- Public & private funded projects
- non-governmental & governmental organisations
- companies
- universities
- schools active in STEM education

Win prizes and awards

Those who organise STEM activities in the course of April 2018, may also enter the STEM Discovery Week competitions and win prizes and awards from international projects and organisations in STEM education!

If you already have an activity in mind or scheduled, you can submit it to the STEM Discovery Map of activities using our online form.
